

He Was Here
Moslem Shrine Occupies
Old Jewish Temple
Once Visited
By Christ

Editor's Note: — Nowhere on this earth is war closer than in Palestine, the very region which heard Christ's voice and felt His footsteps. Here is the first in a series of five reports on the condition at Easter time, 1957, of sites Christ made holy by His presence nearly 2,000 years ago.

By WILTON WYNN
JERUSALEM, Jordan (P) — Inside the walls of Old Jerusalem is a quiet courtyard surrounding a mosque and a beautiful dome. Some people here believe the trumpet will sound on Judgment Day from a rock beneath the dome and that souls of the dead will be weighed in balance scales hanging from nearby arches.

This is holy ground. For- eigners can enter only by special permission. In some sections, shoes must be re- moved or heavy slippers put on.

Known to the Arabs as the "Haram es Sherif" (August Sanctu- ary), this enclosure covers the site of the Jewish Temple of Jesus' day. When Jesus was 12, His parents brought Him from Nazareth to visit the Temple here. While the family was on the north road back to Nazareth, Jesus remained in the Temple with the learned "doctors" astonishing them with His questions and answers. It was His first effort as a teacher of mankind and the only event of Jesus' boyhood re- lated in the Bible.

Many changes have taken place in this area since Jesus was here. The Jewish Temple has been de- stroyed for nearly 2,000 years. No Jewish priests can enter the area today. But the temple site still is a sacred religious enclosure where learned "doctors" of another faith gather for endless discussion and study.

Belongs To Moslems
The Temple area now is a sacred Moslem shrine, the third most holy place in Islam. The contemporary "doctors" are Mos- lem sheikhs, some of whom come from thousands of miles away to spend their lives in religious con- templation.

These learned Moslems spread carpets or mats on the stone floor of the courtyard and debate minute theological problems for hours. Sometimes one will sit apart from the others. With his legs crossed and the Koran opened on a small wooden rack, he will chant Koranic passages by the hour, his body swaying rhythmically.

Sometimes a learned sheikh will have a small boy sitting in front of him for religious instruc- tion. The sight of such a youngster in a full-length robe sitting at the feet of a sheikh recalls the in- cident when the boy Jesus talked to the doctors on the same spot.

Sacred Rock Remains
Of the Temple which Jesus visited, there remains a sacred rock which once formed the Jewish altar. On the rock may be seen the channels down which the blood of sacrificed animals flowed when Jewish priests worshipped here.

This rock supposedly was the altar on which Abraham offered to sacrifice Isaac long before Jerusalem became the center of the Hebrew kingdom. When David established his capital here, he was ordered to build an altar on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite, which was the same rock. The altar then became the focal point of Solomon's Temple and

Army And Arab Legion Are Reported Supporting King
Hussein; Deny Mob Riots

DAMASCUS, Syria (P) — King Hussein today appeared to have won the early rounds of his fight to purge pro-Egyptian leaders from Jordan's army and political scene. But the possibility of violent riots among his Palestinian subjects still posed a grave threat to the young monarch.

So far, major units of Jordan's 24,000-man army and its most effective component — the British-trained Arab Legion — appeared supporting the King.

A spokesman at Hussein's palace, reached by telephone from Damascus, denied reports of demonstrations in Amman, the Jordan capital, and said, "Things are quiet here."

But wild demonstrations were reported yesterday in Palestine towns, held by Jordan since the 1948 war, at word that Hussein had deported the pro-Egyptian army chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Ali Abu Nawar, to Syria and placed ousted Premier Suleiman Nabulsi under house arrest.

Leading members of Nabulsi's old Cabinet forced out last week by Hussein also were reported detained. Many of Nabulsi's follow- ers in Parliament began fleeing across the Syrian border.

A strike against the 22-year-old monarch's army-backed coup was threatened as resentment spread among followers of the popular Nabulsi, a leading opponent of ties with the West and an advocate of close relations with Egypt, Syria and the Soviet Union.

Tanks Guard Palace
Tanks guarded the royal palace in the wake of two reported clashes between army units loyal to Hussein and military elements sympathetic to Syria and Egypt.

Syrian sources in Damascus described the King's action as a pro-Iraq coup d'etat. Iraq is ruled by Hussein's cousin King Faisal, and is the special object of Egypt- ian and Syrian hatred because of its alliance with the West through the Baghdad Pact.

Damascus papers reported ru- mors that the Iraqi brigade sta- tioned along Jordan's eastern fron- tier had been reinforced by a heavily equipped regiment a week ago.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

TWO SENTENCED TO JAIL TODAY;
FIVE INDICTED

Clifford G. Chapman, Orrtanna R. 1, was sentenced to a total of 60 days in jail by the Adams County court this morning. He was given 30 days beginning March 20 on a charge of driving while under the influence and was also ordered to pay $50 for the use of the county and the costs in that case. He was also sentenced to 30 days in jail, to begin at the expiration of the first 30 days, on a charge of driving while his operator's license was suspended.

Ellis J. Brown, New Oxford R. 1, who had pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence, was sentenced to 30 days in jail, starting March 15, date of his incarceration, and was immediately released on payment of a fine of $50 and the costs.

Raphael Sanders, New Oxford R. 2, in court on an arraignment in his support order, was directed to pay $5 per week in addition to his regular $25 per week order until he is caught up with the arrearage.

Five Indictments
Indictment against five defend- ants were handed up by the grand jury at noontime. True bills were found on each of the three in- voluntary manslaughter charges against Ronald B. Hewitt, 338 S. Washington St. True bills were returned on two indictments against James Nevin Keller, Gettysburg R. 3, charged with selling a motor vehicle on which the registration number had been defaced and with passing a title for a known stolen car. True bills were also handed up on burglary and larceny charges against Angelo Nicholas Digiacomi, Watertown, Mass., and Donald Eu- gene Heider, York, and John Ed- ward Irwin, Pittsburgh, driving while under the influence.

Herbert P. Lady, Biglerville R. 2 teacher, is the foreman for the grand jury. Two of the 24 called for duty were excused. They were Frederick Gelbert, Gettysburg R. 4, and Paul A. Smith, McSherrystown.

MRS. YOHE, 95,

ESTIMATE 1,000
FISHERMEN OUT FOR TROUT TODAY

The more than 1,000 fishermen in Adams county today fished the streams fairly full of trout—but reports showed the anglers were having some difficulty in snaring the fish.

County Treasurer Jacob G. Appier said he had issued more than 300 licenses to potential anglers, and the Gettysburg News and Sporting Goods sold more than 400 licenses in anticipation of the opening of the trout season at 5 o'clock this morning. In addition, licenses were sold by ten other stores throughout the county.

Among the first successful trout fishermen to return from first day fishing trips this morning were George T. Raffensperger, S. Strat- ton St., and Robert Harner, Barlow St.

MAN HURT WHEN CAR HITS TREE;
OTHER CRASHES

Bernard C. Bean, 35, Gettysburg R. 1 laborer, suffered lacerations of the head and a possible fracture of the skull when his car left the road and smashed into a tree one mile south of here on the Taneytown Rd. at 1:20 o'clock this morning.

State police said Bean was headed north in his auto when the vehicle failed to negotiate a curve, crossed the south-bound lane and ran off the highway to strike the tree. Re- moved to the Warner Hospital in the ambulance Bean was admitted as a patient. Damage to the car was estimated at $300.

Crash Near Littlestown
Three automobiles were involved in an accident one mile east of Lit- tlestown on the Taneytown-Little- town Rd. Sunday evening at 8:10 o'clock, but one was injured.

State police said Leo E. Palmer, 69, Littlestown R. 2 laborer, was driving east and attempted a left turn south off the Taneytown Rd. His car was struck by an east-bound auto operated by William T. Livelyberger, 27, Bethesda, Md. sales- man. The impact drove the Palmer car back and into an east-bound auto driven by Glenn E. Unger, 24, Lumber St., Littlestown ap- pliance repairman, who was at the moment attempting to pass the Palmer car.

Damage totalled $700, of which $300 occurred to the Palmer sedan, $250 to Livelyberger auto and $150 to Unger's machine.

No one was injured when two cars collided Sunday afternoon at 3:10 o'clock at the intersection of Reynolds Ave. and the Lincoln High- way one-half mile west of here. State police said Philip E. Scott, 18, 529 Baltimore St., was driving south on Reynolds Ave., halted for the stop sign, then pulled out into the Lincoln Highway where his car col- lided with an east-bound vehicle operated by Howard S. Stambaugh, 59, Spring Grove R. 2. Damage totaled $75.

MRS. W. KORVER
DIES ON SUNDAY

Mrs. Margaret R. Korver, 50, wife of William J. Korver, New Oxford R. 2, died Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Hanover Hospital.

Commissioners Put
Ban On Auctions

The Adams County commissioners have banned the holding of public auctions from the courthouse area.

Crosby N. Hartzell, clerk to the commissioners, Saturday afternoon notified Victor "Swifty" Palmer, who has been holding auctions in front of the courthouse on Saturdays for many years, that the commissioners had decided that Saturday's sale would be the last, that henceforth no permission will be given for such sales.

Palmer said he plans to secure a petition to present to the commis- sioners asking continuation of the sales.

FACT - FINDING BOARD NAMED
ON ANNEXATION

Bendersville, if it is permitted to annex a section of Menallen Twp., may also take over a portion of Menallen's debt as well, according to action taken by the Adams Coun- ty court this morning.

Bendersville had filed a petition with the court asking that it be per- mitted to annex a section of Men- allen Twp. adjoining the eastern edge of the borough. Menallen Twp. supervisors and the school board petitioned the court, unde. new state regulations governing the an- nexation of township areas by boroughs, to establish a board of commissioners to serve as a fact- finding body before the court makes final decision on the original pe- tition asking annexation.

The action marks the first time the new regulations have been brought before the local court in any annexation proceedings.

Three-Man Board
Attorney J. Francis Yake Jr., Get- tysburg attorney who resides at New Oxford R. D.; P. Lawrence Hoover, East Berlin R. D., president of the People's State Bank of East Berlin, and Roy D. Renner, Little- town, former county clerk of the courts, were appointed as the board of commissioners.

They will have the duty of find- ing the facts concerning the rela- tive advantages and disadvantages of the proposed annexation to both

62 ORPHANS ARE
GUEST OF ATO
ON SATURDAY

Sixty-two orphans were guests of the Alpha Tau Omega frater- nity on the Gettysburg College campus Saturday afternoon for an Easter party. Coeds and other special guests helped entertain the boys and girls during the after- noon and a buffet supper served at the fraternity house.

First there were horse and buggy rides around the campus provided by John Teeter and while they waited for their turns to ride in the buggy the youngsters were entertained by the antics of a young lamb loaned by George Slaybaugh.

Ice cream, cookies and candy were served before an Easter Egg hunt which was held behind the chapter house. More than 300 brightly colored eggs were the ob- ject of the youngsters' search. There are piggy-back rides, races, tag and other lawn games during the afternoon. After group singing and dancing in the fraternity house, the boys and girls were taken to the SCA building for the showing of several movies.

There was a buffet supper at the ATO house after the movies and the day's events were climaxed by the arrival of a big "Easter bunny" that handed out Easter baskets to all the children.

The children who participated in the party were brought here from the United Brethren Orphanage in Quincy, the Children's Home and the Lutheran Church in Carlisle and the Hoffman Orphanage, near Littlestown. The fraternity provid- ed transportation for 30 of the youngsters. Merchants and town- folk who contributed to the party were thanked publicly today by the ATO.

COUNTY COUPLE
ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Naugle, Orr- tanna R. 1, Saturday afternoon ob- served their 60th wedding anniver- sary with a dinner at Mt. Carmel EUB Church, attended by more than 60 children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends.

Numerous congratulatory mes- sages and gifts were received by the couple, including a television set which was presented by their children. A basket of flowers and a corsage of gardenias for Mrs. Naugle were also presented by the couple's 14 children.

Natives Of Orrtanna
Rev. Ivan G. Naugle, Keedysville, Md., oldest of the children, served as toastmaster. Prayer was offered by J. D. Miller, Biglerville banker and a son-in-law. Charles Wert, Harrisburg, another son-in-law, led in group singing of "When You and I Were Young Maggie" and "My Old Mt. Carmel Home." Mrs. I. G. Naugle was accompanied, J. D. Miller also read a poem entitled "The House Where I Was Born"

Will Hold Lenten
Services This Week

The final in the series of noon Lenten services will be held Wednes- day noon from 12:05 to 12:25 p.m. in Christ Lutheran Church. The Rev. M. R. Hamsher will deliver the sermon. He will be assisted by Wal- ter Smith, assistant pastor of St. James Lutheran Church. These serv- ices are sponsored by the Gettys- burg Ministerial Association. The public is invited.

The Good Friday three-hour serv- ice will be held in the Trinity Re- formed Church, beginning at noon. Meditations will be from the "Seven Words from the Cross."

EISENHOWERS
AT COMMUNION
SERVICE HERE

President and Mrs. Eisenhower attended the second Communion service at 10:45 o'clock Palm Sun- day morning in the Presbyterian Church here.

The church had been nearly filled for the 9:15 o'clock service but was filled to capacity for the service that the President and Mrs. Eisenhower attended. About 30 persons stood throughout the service in the rear of the church. Others waited out- side when they found there were no seats available.

The Eisenhowers occupied their usual pew toward the right front of the church, near the flag-marked pew where Abraham Lincoln once sat. Before the service ushers placed a white ribbon across the end of the pew to reserve it for the Eisen- howers when it was learned during the first service that the President would attend the later one.

The President wore a dark gray suit, gray hat and gray striped tie. Mrs. Eisenhower was smartly dressed in a gray suit with a brown fur neckpiece and a gray hat. They arrived as usual a few minutes be- fore the service opened.

Several hundred persons were gathered outside the church to greet them and many waited to see them leave. They went from the church to their farm and by 2:30 o'clock were on their way back to Wash- ington, D. C.

Mrs. Laban Hershey
Dies Saturday At 71

Mrs. Edna F. Hershey, 71, widow of Laban Hershey, died Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the Kuhn Convalescent Home, New Oxford, of complications. She had resided at the home for the last six years and before that lived at Seven Stars.

A native of Adams County, she was a daughter of the late Millard Fillmore and Nancy Rebecca (Rebert) Cover, and a member of Flohr's Lutheran Church. Her husband pre- ceeded her in death in February, 1955.

Surviving are two children: Ker- mit L. Hershey, Westminster, and Mrs. John B. Sadler, Falls Church, Va.; four grandchildren; and these brothers and sisters: Herbert Cover, Covington, Va.; Mrs. Bessie Bream, Gettysburg R. 4; Miss Otto Cover, Williamsport, Md.; Mrs. Roy Bream, Gettysburg, and Mrs. Susan Bie- secker, Gettysburg.

Funeral services Wednesday after- noon at 1:30 o'clock from Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. Mahlon E. Clarke, her pastor, officiating. Interment in the Flohr's Church Cemetery. Friends may call Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

"He Was Here"
Times today publishes first of five articles on a Holy Week journey to five famous Biblical scenes.

Herod's Temple in Jerusalem — where the child Jesus astonished learned doctors with His wisdom — was destroyed nearly 2,000 years ago.

But a magnificent structure stands on that very spot today. It is the "Dome of the Rock," third holiest place in Islam and erected by Moslems over the very stone upon which Jewish priests offered sacrifices to Jehovah at the time of Christ.

Five Famous Sites
One can visit this historic location and others which played important parts in the life of Christ by follow- ing "He Was Here," a Holy Week journey to five famous Biblical scenes, in The Gettysburg Times beginning today. The first story, a sensitive study of the modern ap- pearance of the temple site Christ visited as a boy of 12, appears in today's edition, first column on this page.

The four other articles will de- scribe the modern setting of the spot on the bank of the Jordan River where John baptized Christ; the imposing and desolate mountain near Jericho where Christ fasted for 40 days and triumphantly re- sisted Satan's temptations; the dusty village of Bethany where Christ raised Lazarus from the dead and later prepared for His Palm Sunday entrance into Jerusa- lem.

The last article on Good Friday is a study of the holy city of Jerusalem, tracing Christ's route in the days immediately preceding His crucifixion over the barbed wire and bitterness dividing the ancient city today.

Wealth Of Experience
The reports were written by Associated Press Foreign Corre- spondent Wilton Wynn, whose normal base is in Cairo. Few writers could bring more experience to the job.

A 36-year-old native of Prescott, Ark., Wynn worked on several American newspapers before first going to the Middle East in 1945 as head of the journalism depart- ment at the American University in Cairo. In addition to teaching, he was an editor of Middle East Opinion, a Cairo magazine, and wrote for the Chicago Tribune and the Religious News Service.

He returned to the United States to head the journalism division of Lehigh University for three years, then he and his Lebanese-born wife, Leila, went back to the Middle East where he joined The Associ- ated Press in Beirut in 1950. Since then he has covered news through- out the area.

GOOD EVENING
Isn't it funny how easy it is to pick out the wrong sizes in birthday presents?

7 MEMBERS OF
AT ST. JAMES

A sneak thief who entered St. James Lutheran Church, York St., Sunday morning between 8:15 and 9 o'clock stole eight pocketbooks, about $60 in cash, and several checks from seven members of the choir who were singing at a morn- ing service in the church.

The loss was discovered when the choir members returned to the robe room in the basement of the church after completing their part in the service.

There it was found that someone had opened the handbags of seven of the choir members and removed eight wallets from the handbags. Some of the handbags had been on a table in the room, some on shelves in closets in which the robes are stored. Doors to the closets had been opened to locate the handbags.

List Of Victims
Borough police said the owners of the wallets and the losses were: Mrs. Richard B. Shade, Hillcrest Pl., a red plastic wallet containing a driver's license and a black leather wallet containing $125 in change. Mrs. Ruth Jacobs, 24 W. Water St., a red billfold with the gold initials, "R. L." on it containing social security card, pictures, a $1 bill, some change and a key. Mrs. Jean Wieder, 4 W. Water St., a red billfold containing a pay check from the Howard Johnson restaurant, driver's license, social security cards, etc., and some change.

Lost $30 In Bills
Mrs. Orville Riffe, Gettysburg R. 3, a red billfold containing social security cards, driver's license and owner's cards, a $20 bill, a $5 bill and five $1 bills.

Mrs. Arlene Shealer, Gettysburg R. 2, a red billfold containing a $1 bill, a quarter and some pennies.

Mrs. George Fair, Steinwehr Ave., a billfold containing a $10 bill and five $1 bills.

Mrs. Viola Sachs, Baltimore St., a black billfold containing social security cards, driver's license, etc., and a check for $42.07.

Several of those who had driver's licenses stolen today had to make application to Harrisburg for dupli- cate driver's and owner's cards in order to continue use of their cars.

SAYS CHILDREN ARE DOING MORE READING TODAY

Children today are reading more books and they are, especially in the senior high school age group, much more interested in factual books than in fiction, Mrs. Agnes Krarup, Pittsburgh, president of the Pennsylvania Library Association, told the members of the South Central chapter of the association at its annual spring meeting here Saturday.

Speaking at a luncheon at the Graeffenburg Inn, Miss Krarup observed: "There are still many children who enjoy the classics that we enjoyed. But the taste of the older children to a large extent has changed to factual books, particularly science. There is actually less reading of fiction today, and among fiction possibly the strongest demand is for science fiction."

"The general finding among librarians is that there has been no decline in the desire of children to read, in fact there has to some extent been an increase since the advent of television. Libraries frequently find themselves flooded with requests for books about things the children have seen on television."

State Librarian Speaks
At the Gettysburg High School library where the morning session was held, Ralph Blasingame, new Pennsylvania state librarian, told of plans been drawn up to secure Pennsylvania's share of the rural library services bill passed by the U. S. House of Representatives and now being studied by the Senate. If the House-approved bill allocating $5,000,000 to help rural libraries is passed, Pennsylvania will receive about $40,000. If the Senate increases the amount to $7,500,000 as anticipated, then Pennsylvania will have a proportionately larger share, he said. He observed that because all requests from county libraries must be approved by the state, and since the state program must be approved by the federal government, "it may be next year before any money can be received from this source." The federal money must be met by matching funds from the state or local activities.

Fifty-five attended the high school sessions and 44 were present for the luncheon program. Mrs. Madeline Startzman, Washington, Md., county librarian, represented Mrs. Mary Louise Holzapfel, a featured speaker who was unable to be present.

Gulie W. Lefever, principal at Gettysburg High School, welcomed the group.

Officers elected for the coming year were: Chairman, Miss Grace Peters, Shippensburg High School; vice chairman, Miss Eleanor King, Milton Hershey High School; secretary-treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Sanders, Coyle Public Library, Chambersburg.

NAME LIBRARY FOR FOUNDER

As part of its 125th Anniversary Year celebration, Gettysburg College Sunday evening formally named its library the "Samuel Simon Schmucker Library," in honor of the college founder. The ceremonies took place during intermission of the Gettysburg choir's annual spring concert in Christ Chapel. Approximately 600 persons attended the concert.

In a statement of formal naming, General Willard S. Paul, president, said: "In accord with the unanimous action of the board of trustees of Gettysburg College and by virtue of the authority vested in me as president of the college, I hereby declare that the library of Gettysburg College shall be known hereafter as the Samuel Simon Schmucker Library to honor the memory of the founder of Pennsylvania College of Gettysburg, which in 1921 became Gettysburg College."

C. William Duncan, of Gettysburg graduate with the class of 1917, and the great-grandson of the founder, spoke briefly of his great-grandfather's early connection with the Lutheran church, the Gettysburg Seminary and the college.

Air Reserve Units Meet This Evening

Both flights of the 9290th Air Reserve Squadron will meet for instruction this evening from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock in the AFROTC building on the Gettysburg College campus.

For Flight B there will be a lecture on "The Career Airman" by Lt. Patrick McDermitt assisted by Sgt. Wildansin, AF recruiter who visits Gettysburg each Monday and Friday.

Sgt. Clair Thomas will be in charge of instruction for Flight H, a specialized training unit for non-commissioned officers.

CODE VIOLATORS

The following recently forfeited fines in Westminster for motor code violations: Dennis A. Overholter, Taneytown, $6.45, permitting unlicensed person to operate; Shirley Ann Valentine, Taneytown, $6.45, operating without license; Donald E. Cooley, Gardners, $11.45, exceeding 55 miles per hour; Maurice W. Freeman, Gettysburg, $11.45, exceeding 55 miles.

HUMANE GROUP FEEDING LAMBS SEIZED ON FARM

"Operation Bottle" was in full swing at the Harrisburg Humane Society's shelter east of the city on Rt. 422 as staff members started a feeding program for 22 starvings lambs seized Saturday from an Adams County man.

Mrs. Blair T. Claybaugh, president of the Humane Society, said the baby sheep, "some of them just born," were taken from the farm of Nicholas Zemo, located near Fairfield.

Zemo paid a $20 fine and costs three weeks ago before a Gettysburg justice of the peace of a charge of cruelty to animals pressed by the society, Mrs. Claybaugh said.

Found Starved Sheep
She explained that the society brought the charge after an investigation disclosed that Zemo "had about 100 sheep at his farm and they were starving and being attacked by other animals, because they were too weak to care for themselves."

The society expected him to correct the situation, Mrs. Claybaugh said, "but the weeks went by and he did not do anything to relieve the suffering of the animals." She said that "when we got to his farm Saturday morning we found three lambs lying beside their dead mothers. It was a pathetic sight. We had to do something; we couldn't let them starve."

The society invoked a state law which gives such organizations the right to seize and care for any animals not being given proper attention, Mrs. Claybaugh said.

"We took the lambs with us, 22 of them," she stated. "We left 83 older sheep out there."

The society president disclosed that her organization went out of its way to buy 30 bales of hay and 40 bushels of grain for the sheep during the last three weeks to help Zemo feed them.

Apparently, it was the only food the herd was given.

The lambs will be kept at the shelter until it is determined how they shall be disposed of, Mrs. Claybaugh said.

"MUCH IN COMMON"

We all have much in common . . . regardless of our place . . . beneath it all we're brothers . . . we of the human race . . . though we differ in color . . . or in religious creeds . . . all of us have kindred souls . . . which have the selfsame needs . . . all men need love to guide them . . . we want for friendship true . . . without the bonds of brotherhood . . . life would indeed be blue . . . we all have likes and dislikes . . . still somehow we're the same . . . a rose is still a rose, although . . . called by another name . . . happiness and sadness . . . belong to one and all . . . God lets men rise, then suddenly . . . He causes them to fall . . . there are so many other things . . . that we all jointly own . . . thus it is established . . . that no one is alone . . . and last of all but far from least . . . this fact cements our bond . . . we all are guilty of mistakes . . . past, present and beyond.

WARM WEATHER
IN MANY AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Warmer, more springlike weather was in the works today from the Great Plains to the Atlantic Coast and mostly fair skies prevailed east of the Mississippi River.

Mostly cloudy skies were indicated for the plains states with scattered showers forecast for the extreme northern and southern fringes of the area.

The far Southwest and southern Pacific Coast was expected to be generally fair.

Scattered showers were in the works for most of the Pacific Northwest and the central Rocky Mountains.

A warming trend continued through the night in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the lower Great Lakes but elsewhere it was colder under clearing skies.

altar boys and the entire congregation, each carrying a palm branch. The procession left the church and returned, led by the priest, while the choir sang the hymn "All Glory, Laud and Honor to Thee, Redeemer King," to represent the welcome given to Christ on the First Palm Sunday. A special offering was received for the Holy Thursday and Easter flowers.

There will be services in St. Aloysius Church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30 p.m., with confessions following. There will also be Stations of the Cross at 2:30 p.m., Friday. The Holy Saturday ritual will begin at 11 p.m., with the High Mass of the Vigil of Easter about midnight. There will also be masses at 7:30 and 10:30 on Easter Sunday.

HOME FOR AGED
BURNS; 15 DIE

MONTREAL (AP)—Relatives streamed through the city morgue today trying to identify charred victims of a fire that swept a suburban old people's home, killing 15 residents.

Most of the aged victims were burned beyond recognition. Crippled or bedridden, most had been unable to escape the blaze that engulfed the two-story converted farmhouse within minutes.

Police at Point-Aux-Trembles, where the tragedy occurred, listed four persons still missing. But Mrs. Jean Henry, manager of the home, said there were only 29 persons in the building at the time and 14 survivors had been accounted for.

Thirteen inmates and two nurses walked or were carried to safety before the upper story collapsed.

Firemen believe the blaze, which broke out at 7 p. m. Saturday and raged for three hours, was caused by a short circuit.

ONCE IN A MILLION

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP)—The Lynchburg News said it probably wouldn't happen again in a million editions of the paper.

It had two reviews on the same page of Henrik Ibsen's play, "Hedda Gabler."

The dramatic societies of Sweet Briar and Randolph-Macon women's colleges selected the same play and presented it on the same night. Both sent reviews to the paper.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

We mentioned last week that Mr. Henry Rupp was preparing to erect a two-story brick dwelling on the corner of York and Stratton streets. We now learn that it is to be a large three-story with beautiful veranda in front, and other modern improvements, which will render it the most elegant house in the borough.

A bill has passed the Senate incorporating the Caledonia Cold Spring Association.

The prosperous territory of Minnesota is to come into the union as a state next session. The Legislature of Minnesota is to meet on the 27th of this month for the purpose of disposing of the munificent donations of lands in aid of Railroads within the Territory, which was made by congress at the last session.

Died: On Monday last, after a long illness, Mr. Peter Aughinbaugh, of this borough aged 78 years, 8 months and 7 days.

On Tuesday evening last, Mrs. Jane E., wife of Mr. Samuel Witherow of this place, in the 49th year of her life.

On the 24th of March, 1856, in Hancock county, Indiana, Mr. John Bower, formerly of this place. On the 23rd of December last, in Darke County, Ohio, Mrs. Elizabeth Hershey (widow of Christian Hershey) aged about 93 years. She resided about 49 years on the farm now owned by Henry Butt, on Marsh Creek, this county.

On the 22nd ult., Mrs. Nancy Tolson, consort of Mr. Matthew Tolson, of Mountpleasant township, in the 73rd year of her age. On the 4th inst., near Bendersville, Mary Hewitt, aged about 74 years.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Local Items: Last week some one indulged in the senseless practice of tying a tin-can to a dog's tail and started the frightened animal down the street. The result was that the horse of Mr. Everhart was frightened, his buggy smashed, etc. Boys should remember that such things are forbidden by law. If Burgess Schroeder gets hold of them, they may realize that there is not so much fun in it.

Henry H. Stock, of Hamilton township, has been appointed Director of the Poor, in place of George Lough, deceased.

Prof. U. J. Martiney has returned from Baltimore and expects to start dancing classes in Littlestown, Hanover and this place.

Mr. F. U. Leffer died on Tuesday night after the paper had been prepared for press. He took a severe cold about a week previous which developed into typhoid pneumonia. The remains were taken to Chambersburg where he had been engaged in mercantile business prior to his removal to Gettysburg.

Improvements: Ex-Register Nathaniel Miller has purchased the Culp lot on the south side of East Middle street for $550 and is preparing to build a two story brick residence on it.

H. J. Brinkerhoff intends to put a two story brick building in the place of the old frame building on Baltimore street.

George D. Stock is taking down the back building of his residence on Baltimore street, to rebuild with improvements.

Mr. Ramer begins at once the enlargement of the Globe Inn. John Picking Esq. is having his three story brick building on Chambersburg street repainted and Henry S. Toot his residence on Baltimore street.

Henry Overdeer is putting up a building in rear of his lime kilns for the manufacture of carriages. Samuel Faber is enlarging his dwelling on Middle street and Adam Ertter his barn on Washington street.

I.O.O.F.: District Deputy J. Stewart Witherow installed the following officers of Gettysburg Lodge No. 124 I.O.O.F. on Tuesday evening: N. G., J. C. Merz; V. K., Hart Gilbert; S. J., Jeff Myers; A. S., Wm. C. Stallsmith;

Today's Talk

RESPECT YOUR COMPETITORS

There is a tendency among some businesses to criticize and belittle their competitors. This is a bad procedure. Praise them. Learn from them. There are times when you can co-operate with them to their advantage and to yours! Speak well of them and they will speak well of you. You can't destroy good ideas. Take advantage of them.

There is strategy behind all good business moves, the same as there is in all great games like baseball, football, and other athletic contests. Business is a game. Play the winning rules. Respect your competitors.

Not only in business does it pay to respect your competitors, but in every game of life. The late Col. W. R. Nelson, founder of the influential Kansas City Star, once told me he had never been a follower, that no matter how good an idea the other fellow had there was always a better one. I have remembered that wise statement. It can well be remembered by anyone.

I have been doing business with newspapers for fifty years. I recall many who were forever fighting with their competitors. Some like Horace Greeley, the Bennetts, and the Pulitzers were outstanding fighters, but today there is a more respectful attitude among most of our great dailies. That is what pays. There are far more friends among newspapers now than bitter critics.

If there were more respect among nations today, all thoughts of fighting one another would soon be forgotten. What a happy day that would initiate in all this troubled world!

Victories for peace far outweigh any upon the battle field.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Others Are Our Salvation".

NEW MONEY
Fresh money's good to look upon, But I am never certain whether I pay someone two for one So closely new bills stick together.

It seems as though they hate to part. As twins identical I view them. They feel like one, and I'm not smart Enough, when hurried, to undo them.

Away at two for one they go— A loss that often has dimmed me. But this is what I'd like to know: Why two for one are never paid me?

Man Is Killed In Automobile Crash

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 26-year-old Millersburg man was killed Saturday night when the car in which he was a passenger crashed on Route 14 a mile north of the Clark's Ferry Bridge.

State trooper Herman J. Failola identified the victim as Joseph Shrawder who was riding in the auto driven by his brother, Samuel Shrawder, 39, of Harrisburg.

The car smashed into a guard rail, rolled end over end, striking about eight trees. Samuel Shrawder was reported in satisfactory condition at Harrisburg Hospital with a possible concussion, cuts and bruises.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fred L. Crawford, 72, Washington attorney and a former Republican congressman from Michigan for 18 years who was an influential member of the House Insular Affairs Committee, died Saturday. He was born in Dublin, Tex.

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—Prof. Gaetano Pieraccini, 82, an Italian authority, professor emeritus of Florence University, and mayor of Florence after World War II, died Saturday.

LENTEN GUIDEPOSTS

By LEN LESOURD

"She would like to give some time to Guideposts," I was told. "Will you talk to her?"

She was — and is — beautiful young, famous, "Great!" I said enthusiastically.

"We'll put her to work." Then, after more serious reflection, I wondered what jobs we had for someone so famous and glamorous.

Putting out a magazine calls for precise work — typing, dictation, search, editing, productions, etc. Perhaps she could be an occasional hostess at our interview luncheons.

When she arrived — a young, joyous spirit with golden hair — I suggested the luncheon idea. "Most of our activity is routine office work," I added. "That's fine," she said. "You want to do office work?" I asked incredulously. "When do you start work?" "Nine a.m."

"May I begin tomorrow morning?" "At No Pay" When she left, I did some hard thinking. A girl known to millions wants to spend five days a week doing office work at no pay. How would the other girls in the office react to her? She admitted to no specific skill. Would she be more than a hindrance?

Our new employee arrived the next morning. She was assigned a table, not too comfortable chair (we were short on furniture), and a complicated filing job. An hour later I stole a look. Her hands and face had become smudged, one golden lock hung over her eye, papers were piled up in front of her. "I'll give her two days," I said to myself.

I was wrong. She mastered the filing, won the friendship of the other girls, and soon was doing research work, typing out memos (two finger style) and serving as hostess at our luncheons. "Could Earn Much" "You know," I said to our business manager, "she is really worth the salary we're paying the others."

We laughed. In her profession she could make more than everybody in the office put together. In the months that followed, she returned from vacations would find "Welcome Home" notes, together with lively drawings and verses, in their desk drawers. She called this a "jolly," a bit of whimsy worth any effort if it created laughter, good laughter it could be shared.

"There is a wonderful spirit of joy in religion," she told us frequently. She had me looking up such Scripture passages as: "That my joy might remain in you," or "rejoice, and again I say rejoice."

"Why are you doing all this?" I asked her several times. "Parents Are Stars" At first she was reluctant to talk about herself. But gradually I pieced most of the story together. Her father and mother are both famous stage and screen stars. At the age of 8 she made her stage debut in the Metropolitan Opera's production of "Peter Ibbetson." At 13 she played Belinda Cratchit in the movie, A Christmas Carol, with her father and mother cast as her parents, Bob and Mrs. Cratchit.

But even with such a grease-paint beginning, her parents saw to it that an acting career never interrupted her normal childhood life. At 19 she was given an unfeatured role in a comedy that opened on Broadway on Nov. 4, 1947. The next morning New York's hardboiled drama critics dug for new superlatives to describe her performance.

Her Name In Lights Her name went up in lights at once. Newsmen vied to interview the new star. Her picture graced the covers of magazines and Sunday supplements. Playwrights eagerly and hopefully submitted their scripts to her, and movie companies bid hard for her services.

"Easter Bunny" Busy At Party

A highlight of the Easter party staged by the ATO fraternity on the Gettysburg College campus Saturday afternoon for 62 boys and girls from nearby orphanages was the appearance of a big white "Easter Rabbit" who distributed Easter baskets to all of the children. WINS STOCK CAR RACE

VINELAND, N.J. (AP)—Bill Wilson of Philadelphia led a 20-car field to capture the 12½ mile feature stock car race in 11:31.17 at the Vineland Speedway yesterday. He was followed by Ed Lindsey, Randallstown, Md.; Don Stumpf, Ridgefield Park; Jackie Lynch, Vineland, and Ralph Smith, Aberdeen, Md. Carl Griner, Millville, won the 7½ mile event for rookies in 7:57.5.

LANGHORNE, Pa. (AP)—Glen (Fireball) Roberts of Daytona Beach, Fla., averaged 85.85 miles an hour to set a new record in the 150-mile Grand National Championship Stock Car Race yesterday.

Roberts clocked 1:44.50 to top the previous record of 1:52.32 set last year by Buck Baker, Charlotte, N.C. The winner drove a '57 Ford to the front during the 88th mile and stayed ahead to the finish line. Defending champion Baker was fifth.

But after a year of such heady attention, a strange feeling began to possess her.

"It was all unreal and flat," she said. "I wasn't I anymore. Praise seemed more vital than prayer. Glitter more important than God. The quiet steady voice of my faith, on which I had always depended, was silent."

Not many performers will stop on their way up the ladder of fame, then go back a few rungs to recover some mislaid qualities.

A Spiritual Retreat

This young actress did. Nor was it an easy or short search. First, she went with a group of seekers on a two weeks' spiritual retreat, and it was there that she was first able to express her new perspective.

"To find myself I have to give myself."

She also learned this: A dedicated Christian can infuse a home, a hall, an office, any place, with a spirit of love, joy, and selflessness. She brought all these to Guideposts when she volunteered her services.

Five months after she started to work for us, this warm-hearted beauty left to marry a New York doctor. She is now one of television's very brightest stars. We do miss you, but your joy is always with us. . . . June Lockhart.

TOMORROW — Daniel Poling, editor of the Christian Herald, tells the dramatic story of a man who wrecked his life with alcohol but who finally found faith and grace — in jail! A Syrian official denied earlier reports that a Syrian armored regiment had moved last week into north Jordan. About 3,000 Syrian troops already were in that sector of Jordan, stationed there since the Israeli invasion of Egypt last fall. Saudi Arabian troops are stationed in south Jordan.

U.S. Watches Action

State Department officials in Washington kept close watch on the explosive situation. A department press officer said, "we are watching with great interest, but of course we do not intrude ourselves into such a situation."

Authorities in Cairo nervously awaited developments which could threaten Egyptian President Nasser's leadership of the Arab world. Egyptian officials were keenly aware the coup represented a major break in the five-nation Arab bloc — Egypt, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Yemen and Jordan — opposing the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact.

TEHRAN (AP) — A police spokesman claimed today bandit leader Dardash, whose gang ambushed and murdered three Americans last month, has fled across the Pakistan border and is hiding in the frontier town of Turbat.

The spokesman said Iran has asked permission to send 100 gendarmes to Turbat to help Pakistan shah's way of life and fighting.

Majors Rolls Into High Gear Tuesday After Opener Today In Washington; Nats Vs. Orioles

By JOE REICHER

The Associated Press

Baltimore and Washington, neither a serious challenger for the American League pennant, had the stage all to themselves as the 1957 major league baseball season got under way today with the traditional solo opener in the nation's capital.

A pair of run-of-the-mill right-handers, Hector Brown (9-7) of the Orioles and Bob Chalkles (4-4) of the Senators, were poised for the inaugural but not before a much more noted pitcher, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, threw out the first ball.

The majors roll into high gear tomorrow with all teams active as the National League starts its 82nd season and the American its 57th.

Yanks Strong Favorite

The New York Yankees remain a prohibitive favorite to win their third straight pennant and eighth in nine years under Manager Casey Stengel. The odds-makers have made them 2-5 favorites, shoddest on record.

All observers expect another tight race in the National League. Milwaukee is a slight favorite over Brooklyn and Cincinnati. This trio fought it right down to the wire last year with the Dodgers edging out the Braves by one game and the Redlegs by two.

The experts don't give the other teams much of a chance unless the Yankees should run into an endless run of injuries or a "dark horse" team like the St. Louis Cardinals should get hot.

Some New Managers

The three clubs expected to provide the sternest opposition to the Yankees will be under the leadership of new managers. Kerby Farrell, after a 10-year apprenticeship in the minor leagues, has replaced Al Lopez in Cleveland. Lopez, who never finished lower than second in six years with the Indians, has moved over to Chicago. Jack Tighe, a hustling, fiery type, has succeeded mild-mannered Bucky Harris at Detroit, moving up from his job as Tiger coach.

The other new manager is Bob Scheffing, who has inherited Stan Hack's last-place problems with the Chicago Cubs.

Old familiar faces like Bob Feller and Al Rosen are gone to be replaced by eager newcomers like Tony Kubek of the Yankees, Rodgers Maris of the Indians, Jim Landis of the White Sox, Brooks Robinson and Carl Povich of the Orioles, Haywood Sullivan of the Red Sox, Bobby Gene Smith of the Cardinals, Andre Rodgers of the Giants, Bob Bowman and John Kennedy of the Phillies, Casey Wisse of the Cubs and some dozen others.

G-BURG NETMEN DROP 3RD TILT

Charley Moyer was the only Gettysburg entry to win a match as the Bullet tennis team lost its third straight to Dickinson here Saturday afternoon 8-1. Moyer won over Ron DePass 8-10, 6-1, 6-3.

The victorious Bullets next meet F. and F. at Lancaster on April 26. Summaries:

Singles
Dick Shuman, D. defeated Bill Fischer, 7-5, 6-1.
"Kit" Spahr, D. defeated Dave Wingfield, 6-2, 6-1.
Moyer, G. defeated DePass, 8-10, 6-1, 6-3.
Art Duell, D. defeated Coy Yingst, 6-1, 6-1.
Fred Hamilton, D. defeated Howard Body, 6-3, 6-0.
Dave Ayres, D. defeated Jerry Robbins, 6-3, 6-2.

Doubles
Schuman and Spahr, D. defeated Fischer and Wingfield, 6-3, 6-0.
Kulp and Duell, D. defeated Moyer and Yingst, 6-2, 6-4.
Willard and Rowe, D. defeated Body and Robbins, 6-2, 10-8.

HART FAVORED IN TONIGHT'S ST. NICK'S BATTLE

The Associated Press

Garnett (Sugar) Hart, upset by Boston's Walt Byars in his last start, takes on Willie (Pineapple) Stevenson, another rugged Bostonian, in a 10-round bout at New York's St. Nicholas Arena tonight.

The lanky, hard-hitting Hart was a 5-1 favorite when he had his winning streak of 12 snapped by Byars at Madison Square Garden last March 8. The 21-year-old Philadelphia welterweight is a 3-1 choice over Stevenson.

Pineapples is no pushover. The 23-year-old New Englander has won 12 of his last 13. He has a 27-5 record, including seven kayos. Hart, also winner of 12 of his last 13, has a 20-2 record, including 18 kayos. He had won seven straight by kayos until he was outdazzled by the clever Byars.

The bout will be telecast (DuMont, 10:30 p.m., EST).

"Spider" Webb Favored

Ellsworth (Spider) Webb, streaking Chicago middleweight contender, is a 3-1 favorite to whip New York's tall Randy Sandy in the Wednesday night radio-television (ABC 10 p.m., EST) 10-rounder at Chicago Stadium. The Spider has an impressive 21-1 record. Sandy has an 18-6-1 record.

Veteran Holly Mims of Washington, D. C., is a slight favorite to make it two in a row over 22-year-old Jimmy Beecham of Miami at the Miami Beach Auditorium Friday night (NBC TV-radio, 10 p.m., EST). Mims' record is 42-15-5, Beecham, 17-3.

Heavyweight contender Bob Satterfield is featured in a non-television fight. Satterfield, husky Chicago center, mixes with Oakland's Ben Wee at Oakland, Calif. tonight.

FURILLO CRACK IS TIPOFF, SAYS WARREN SPAHN

By CHUCK CAPALDO

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Carl Furillo's crack that Milwaukee still isn't hungry enough to win the National League pennant is a tipoff, says Warren Spahn yesterday after the Braves had concluded their spring exhibition season with a 5-4 loss to Cleveland.

"He knows we're in better condition than a year ago and he knows we think we can win it," Spahn added. "So he's just trying to give the folk back home something to talk about."

"Then again, he probably feels bad because the Dodgers, defending champions, aren't being picked by many people to repeat. When they start talking like that, you know they're worried."

Furillo, veteran Dodger right fielder, was quoted as saying last week that the Braves weren't going to win because "they're not hungry enough — they're the same club that couldn't hold an eight-game lead last year."

Like Spahn, several of the other Braves were amused by the Furillo statement.

Manager Fred Haney chuckled about Furillo's remarks and then said with a laugh, "I'm glad he said hungry and pot thirsty."

TURKEY DAY CLASH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh football team will play Penn State on Thanksgiving Day in 1958. It will be the first time Pitt has played on Thanksgiving in 23 years.

Starting Pitchers

Bob Chalkles, left, of the Washington Senators, and Hector Brown, of the Baltimore Orioles, have been selected as the starting pitchers in major league baseball's season opener today in Washington. Chalkles had a 4-4 record last year, Brown a 9-7 record. President Eisenhower will throw out the first ball. (AP Wirephoto)

Dickinson Captures Little Three Meet; Bullets Last; Ron Paul Takes Both Sprints

Gettysburg College's track team finished last in the annual Little Three meet here Saturday afternoon. Dickinson captured the meet with a total of 61 5/6 points. Franklin and Marshall was second with 51 1/3 while the Bullets trailed with 39 5/6.

Ron Paul, Bullet sprint ace, accounted for 11 points for Gettysburg by capturing the 100 and 220 dashes while placing fourth in the javelin. A freshman, Howard Maat, led Dickinson's unbeaten cindermen to victory. He won the 880, mile and two-mile runs.

F. and M. was led by Don Martin who took the 120 and 220 hurdles and placed second in the high jump. Jack Ridinger's Bullets are idle now until April 26 and 27 when a group will take part in the Penn Relays in Philadelphia.

Bullets Lose In 10th To Temple 9-7; Syracuse And Penn State Here This Week

A thrilling three-run rally in the last half of the ninth inning which knotted the score at 7-7 went for nought for the Gettysburg College baseball team here Saturday, Temple (3-1) coming up with two runs in the top of the 10th to take a 9-7 victory.

It was the first loss for the Bullets against one victory and a tie. Gettysburg faces three games this week, playing at Dickinson Tuesday and then meeting Syracuse here Wednesday afternoon and Penn State here on Friday.

Eleven bases on balls given up by a trio of Bullet hurlers proved costly in the long game which was played with a biting cold wind sweeping the field.

Get Good Start
Gettysburg took a 3-0 lead in the third inning on singles by Vice Scioia, Joe Robinson, Frank Capitani and Larry Lidell.

Johnny Schleicher, Bullet starter, obviously tired in the sixth and yielded to Wally Kuligowski after allowing two walks and a pair of singles which were good for two runs. Temple eliminated Kuligowski in the next inning on two walks and a single by Goldy. Don Brandt came on and gave up a double to Fleishman before retiring the side.

After the Owls added another run in the top of the eighth via two walks and an error, the Bullets picked up a run in their half on a walk to Robinson, single by Capitani, walk to pinchhitter Leroy Brea, and Bobby Rohrbaugh's fly to center.

Rally In 9th
In the last of the ninth the Bream-men knotted the score on a walk to Scioia, singles by Art Hendley, Robinson and Capitani and an error.

Temple wrapped it up in the 10th with two runs. Granozio tripled to center and scored on Bergdoll's blooper over second base. Bergdoll later scored on a squeeze bunt by Goldy.

JOINS GRID LOOP

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Tunkhannock High School joined the Eastern Pennsylvania Interscholastic Football Conference over the weekend as the 27th member of the northern division.

The Tunkhannock school was admitted at the conference's spring meeting here Saturday.

An application by South Scranton Catholic High School was turned down because of conference rules making the group an all-public school body. Members defeated a proposal to consider changing the rule at the fall meeting.

MOUNT NETMEN LOSE
The Mt. St. Mary's tennis team dropped an 8-1 decision to Georgetown at Washington, Saturday.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Sylvia Wene, Tiny Bowler, Keeps Title

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Diminutive defending champion Sylvia Wene held on to her Class A singles and all-events titles and paced her team to victory in the Pennsylvania State Woman's Bowling Assn. Tournament yesterday.

Miss Wene, a 4-foot 11-inch Philadelphia bowler, rolled 587 in singles and 1,810 in all-events. She teamed with Mrs. Ann Karrer for a second-place spot in Class A doubles, and helped the Deborah Hospital team of Philadelphia run up a 2,639 score to win the Class A team event.

Pressing right behind her in the singles race was her teammate, Mrs. Karrer, with 586.

CELTICS TAKE NBA TITLE IN FINAL THRILLER

BOSTON (AP)—Boston savored its first world basketball championship today because of rookies Tom Heinsohn and Bill Russell and a pair of slick sophomores.

There are no better players in the National Basketball Association than men like Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman.

But when the chips were down the Celtics' younger set came through to nail down the team's first playoff championship in the 11 year history of the loop.

In Double Overtime
In the most exciting title series to date, Boston nipped St. Louis 125-123 in double overtime Saturday in the decisive seventh game.

Heinsohn scored 37 points, hitting on 17 of 33 field goal tries, and had 23 rebounds. Russell grabbed 32 rebounds and tallied 19 points.

Heinsohn was chosen NBA rookie of the year.

Frank Ramsey, on leave from the Army, scored on a 20 foot one handed jump shot with 72 seconds remaining in the second overtime and Jim Loscutoff put on the final touches with a free throw in the last second.

Russell Beats Mark

These NBA second year men were great, too.
In the series, Russell got 160 rebounds and Heinsohn tallied 168 points to lead Boston in those departments.

Russell's 244 rebounds including three semifinal contests with Syracuse far exceeded the former mark of 207 in 12 games by George Mikan of Minneapolis in 1952.

In the finale, Cliff Hagan had 24 points and Bob Pettit 39 for the Hawks.

BARONS NEED ONE MORE WIN

ROCHESTER (AP)—Cleveland's Barons headed home today needing only one more victory over the Rochester Americans to win their eighth Calder Cup in the last 21 years of American Hockey League competition.

The Barons, who edged the Americans out of second place in regular season play, took a stranglehold on the cup competition last night when they beat Rochester 6-3 on the Americans' ice after winning 5-1 at home Saturday.

The victories gave the Barons a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series. The fifth game is scheduled for Cleveland Wednesday.

Johnny McLellan, switched Saturday to Cleveland's first line with Freddy Glover and Jimmy Moore, was the key man in both of the weekend triumphs. He tallied three goals Saturday night and came back with two last night. Cal Stearns also scored twice last night.

Associated Press Services Expanded To 70 Countries

NEW YORK (AP) — Associated Press services expanded substantially throughout the world in 1956. Frank J. Starzel, AP general manager, said Friday in his annual report.

The report was distributed to members of The AP, worldwide news-gathering cooperative, in advance of its annual meeting to be held April 22 in New York. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will be the luncheon speaker.

AP news and pictures are now received in more than 70 countries outside the United States, Starzel said. He noted that in 1956 The AP returned to India and expanded in Brazil, South Viet Nam, Iraq, Aden, Nicaragua and Finland. Service was started last week in South Africa.

Report Other Gains

"There were substantial increases elsewhere in the number of subscribers to the news service, partly the result of stronger facilities of communications," he added. "Egypt, Italy, Turkey and Scandinavia led the list."

During the year, The AP revised its communications system to bring news dispatches from the Pacific areas, including Japan and the Philippines, into a central production and distribution desk in New York. They had previously been relayed through San Francisco.

"Unification and instantaneous transmission of the world report at New York became possible with the global use of radioteletype, east-west, north-south," he said.

New Foreign Bureau

Starzel said The AP established a new foreign bureau to cover three new domestic bureaus, in McAllen, Tex., Montpelier, Vt., and Juneau, Alaska. "The end of the year," he said, "found AP newsmen in out-of-the-way assignments stretching from the antarctic through the Olympics at Melbourne, to the wars of North Africa and the revolution in Hungary."

Commenting on the United States government's refusal to permit American newsmen to travel on the Chinese mainland, Starzel said:

Censorship Is Problem

"The Associated Press expressed its vigorous disagreement with the government's position that its control over American passports should be used to bar newsmen from going where news coverage was needed."

Starzel said one of the most acute problems throughout the year was censorship.

"Our annual compilation on censorship and other conditions restricting the flow of news across international boundaries showed that 1956 had more censorship than any year since the Korean War (1953)," he said.

"SOUND REASON" FOR HANDLING OF NORMAN CASE

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) says he cannot divulge why his subcommittee publicly linked Canadian diplomat E. H. Norman with communists rather than handling the matter quietly through diplomatic channels.

But, he added, his Senate Internal Security Subcommittee followed the course it did for "a sound reason." He said there were facts involved which he could not discuss publicly. Eastland told the Senate yesterday, however, that Canada "has a very fine and efficient government" and has been "zealous" in protecting herself against communism.

The Canadian government has protested strongly the subcommittee's action making public testimony linking Norman with communism.

Cleared By Canada

Norman committed suicide in Cairo April 4 shortly after the subcommittee record was made public. He was Canadian ambassador to Egypt.

The Canadian government said the subcommittee had revived old charges on which Canada had cleared Norman after thorough investigation in 1951.

In Ottawa yesterday, Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester Pearson said Norman had associated openly during his university days with persons believed to be Communists.

Name Cropped Up

But Pearson said this was known to the Canadian government when Norman was employed by the foreign office and that there never was any doubt about Norman's loyalty or integrity.

Eastland said the subcommittee's information about Norman was not confined to his student days. He told the Senate "the cold facts are that from 1951 until this time his name has continued to crop up in investigations we have conducted."

"I am not going to say anything about a man who has passed on," the senator added. "The record speaks for itself."

TEAMSTERS ARE BIGGEST UNION IN THIS NATION

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Which is the nation's biggest labor union? Take your pick between the Teamsters and the Auto Workers.

Per capita payments to the AFL-CIO indicate the Teamsters have an edge, but both unions seem to be in the 1½-million-membership category.

One Teamsters official said privately 1,350,000 was "a good round figure" for his union. Dave Beck, Teamsters president, used the figure 1,400,000 in a press re-million members at various times.

This week the United Auto Workers has been using 1½ million as a membership total at its convention in Atlantic City.

Accurate union membership is hard to pin down. Some unions overstate, others understate. Many play coy. Membership changes from month to month among members with seasonal work.

U. S. Labor Department figures, though based on the best data available, are mostly approximations.

Per capita dues payments to the parent AFL-CIO are perhaps the best indicators on actual membership, excluding Canadian membership. From the dues it collects, each affiliated union pays the AFL-CIO 4 cents a month for each member.

Unions would not likely pay on more members than they actually have. The AFL-CIO figures tend to be conservative too because unions don't pay per capita on members temporarily unemployed or on strike.

For the teamsters, the average per capita paid the AFL-CIO during the last six months of 1956 was on an American membership of 1,354,000. For the month of March alone it was paid on 1,485,000.

For the UAW, the average per capita for the last half of 1956 was on a membership of 1,173,804. The UAW paid per capita on 1,442,787 in January and on 1,224,000 in February, its latest return.

Canada's Department of Labor listed 26,679 members for the Teamsters and 65,000 for the UAW in a 1956 yearbook. These are not included in the AFL-CIO data.

All these figures taken together indicate the memberships of the Teamsters and UAW, including Canada, do reach 1½ million in some months of the year but drop below that in other months. They also indicate the Teamsters keep a slight edge over the UAW.

Apparently third in size is the United Steelworkers. Its per capita to the AFL-CIO for the last six months of 1956 averaged 1,123,700.

Small Newspaper Wins Ayer Award

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A small Indiana newspaper beat out 824 other papers across the nation on Friday to capture the Ayer Cup for excellence in typography, make-up and printing.

The winner of the annual award was the Goshen News. Its circulation of 7,745 is the smallest of any newspaper ever to win the trophy sponsored by N. W. Ayer & Son, Philadelphia, an advertising agency.

Judges picked their choice of the nation's best-looking newspaper from issues of Tuesday, March 5.

Achieving honorable mention in the same under-10,000 class of the Goshen winner were the Lock Haven (Pa.) Express; the Daily Times of Gainesville, Ga.; and the Emporia (Kan.) Gazette. There were 307 competitors in the class.

Driver Flees After He Kills Boy, 7

LANSDALE, Pa. (AP) — An 11-year old girl told state police Thursday the driver of a car that killed her 7-year-old brother jumped back in the vehicle and sped away when she called to him for help.

Police say the two, Betty Jean and Richard Kerns, were walking along a road to a Bible class at a neighbor's home. Betty Jean said she saw the car coming, shouted to her brother and jumped into a ditch. The auto hit Richard and hurled him off the road.

The driver stopped for a few moments, then fled. Betty Jean said, when she called for his aid. She ran home for help.

BYRD PLEDGES NON-POLITICAL INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) pledged Saturday that a Senate investigation of the country's financial condition will be "strictly nonpolitical."

Byrd said he intends to direct the study by his Senate Finance Committee to rising interest rates, revenues, credit, taxes and public and private debts.

The committee voted unanimously yesterday to begin its broad scale inquiry. Byrd said the study will begin as soon as a staff can be assembled.

Some Democratic committee members said privately the inquiry would center on what they call the Eisenhower administration's "tight money" policies. The policy of increasing interest rates as an anti-inflation measure already is under heavy Democratic fire.

These committee Democrats also described the forthcoming investigation as an answer to President Eisenhower's proposal for establishment of an independent commission to study monetary and fiscal policies. So far, the President's plan has gotten nowhere in Congress.

Byrd said "we are going right down the line with an investigation of interest rates, taxes, debts and other matters," adding:

"So far as I can make it so, it will be strictly nonpolitical."

Republican members of the finance group voiced confidence that any investigation run by Byrd would be "objective."

SEES LINK IN HIGH FAT DIET, HEART DEATHS

BOSTON (AP) — A Cleveland doctor today urged "soul-searching investigation" by doctors into the "possibility" that high-fat diets usually prescribed for ulcer patients might contribute towards development of heart attacks.

Dr. Harvey J. Dworken of Western Reserve University said he had found that of 24 deaths among 135 ulcer patients "followed" for four years after a special ulcer research study, 11 came from heart attacks — a rate "higher than you'd expect."

Another speaker of the 38th annual meeting of the American College of Physicians, Dr. Ancel Keys of the University of Minnesota said he had found new evidence consistent with, though not established proof of, an "hypothesis" that "dietary fat is a major factor in the development of coronary heart disease."

Saying that the incidence of heart disease is low in Japan where the diet is low in fat, Keys declared the study showed that when Japanese become Americanized in California, they show "conformity with our American pattern of excessive coronary disease."

GENE AUSTIN IN COMEBACK ON PLATTERS

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Gene Austin, who sold more records in six years than Presley, Belafonte and Combs, is making a comeback at 56.

Austin, who even came before Rudy Vallee, dropped in town the other day to visit his daughter, actress Charlotte Austin, and plug his new record.

RCA-Victor, the company he left in 1932 at the peak of his popularity, just signed him to a recording contract—his first in 25 years. His first record, "Too Late," already is climbing toward hit status.

TV Show On Life
NBC-TV is dramatizing his life on the Sunday Night Playhouse series this coming Sunday.

From 1926 to 1932, Austin's records sold more than 86 million copies—a feat that has never been approached. His recording of "My Blue Heaven" sold seven million, generally regarded as the top all-time seller.

Yet Austin recalls how he had to overcome opposition to make "My Blue Heaven." Victor thought, the hit tune was the one on the other side, now long forgotten.

Fabulous Success

"When we finished that other side—even the musicians left," he said, "but I was determined to make 'My Blue Heaven.' We had a piano player (Austin himself) and I soon found a cellist.

"I had a lawyer friend who always had a yen to whistle on a record so I called him up and told him to hurry over to the studio."

Through the years some popular music critics, explaining the

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is 11 days since E. Herbert Norman, Canadian diplomat accused at an American Senate subcommittee hearing of being a Communist, committed suicide in Egypt. He was his country's ambassador there.

Two questions remain: Was he a Communist? What was the real purpose of the hearings? Norman killed himself after the Internal Security subcommittee released records of two March hearings in which he was flatly called a Communist in the present tense.

There are contradictions in this story. The best way to approach it is from the beginning. Norman was first linked with communism at a 1951 hearing by Dr. Karl W. Wittfogel, a college professor and onetime Communist.

A Mixed-Up Witness
He said he met Norman in a Communist study group in 1938 at Cape Cod. He said Norman was a Communist. Except for saying it was "obvious," he never explained how he knew.

But Wittfogel was a mixed-up witness. That didn't become known until this month, six years later, when Robert Morris, counsel for the subcommittee, said Wittfogel had not met Norman in 1938 at Cape Cod but in 1939 at Columbia.

This writer has gone through the voluminous volumes of the subcommittee hearings back to Wittfogel's testimony in 1951 and, with one exception, could find no instance where one other person ever said Norman was a Communist.

Stoutly Defended
The exception was Morris himself. One thing was clear from fabulous success of the record, have attributed it to fancy orchestration.

Other Big Ones
"It was fancy all right," Austin says. "Even the amateur whistler didn't rehearse."

His next biggest seller was "Ramona" and another was "Girl of My Dreams."

When his records started selling only a million copies—the goal of most present-day singers—Austin thought he was slipping, so he retired.

reading the hearings: If Norman was not a Communist, he played around with them.

Canada's foreign secretary, Lester B. Pearson, stoutly defended Norman. He said Norman had been investigated in 1951, after Wittfogel's testimony, and had been found loyal to Canada.

Pearson admitted that Norman in his youth had had Communist associations. But when asked twice point-blank on the floor of the House of Commons if Norman was a Communist, Pearson refused to answer.

Emerson Called
The story moves up to March 1957. John K. Emmerson, a State Department career diplomat who had been investigated by his department in 1932 and cleared of any suspicion of communism, was called before the subcommittee to testify.

In 1944, when his specialty was psychological warfare, he was assigned by the State Department to Chinese Communist headquarters in Yenan. The Chinese Reds were using Japanese Communist prisoners for propaganda against their own people.

Emmerson wrote a memorandum to his superiors suggesting the United States use Japanese prisoners for propaganda against Japan too. A copy of this note was found by the subcommittee staff last year.

On March 1 Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), a subcommittee member, told the Senate Emmerson had "slanted" his reports from China. Emmerson was called to testify, which he did on March 12 and 21.

During his explanation of the note and his later activities in the war, he mentioned meeting Norman, whom he had known since 1940, in Tokyo in 1945. Under constant questioning by Morris, Emmerson said he had no reason to suspect or believe Norman was a Communist.

But Morris, all primed with information on Norman, said, "We have quite a few security reports which have a great deal of information to the effect that he (Norman) is a Communist." He read from a document identified as "from a U. S. government executive agency security report."

Contradictions
He never identified the agency by name. The FBI later denied it had given the subcommittee any information on Norman. Army intelligence issued a similar denial. In his testimony Emmerson said he last saw Norman in Lebanon Oct. 27, 1956.

Emmerson was then with the American consulate in Lebanon, which is Israel's next door neighbor. Norman was coming to Lebanon to present his credentials as minister to that country. The meeting of those two men, Oct. 27, was two days before Israel invaded Egypt.

Before the hearing ended, Morris told Emmerson he was not under investigation. But on April 12 Sen. Eastland (D-Miss), chairman of the subcommittee, told the Senate the purpose of the hearings was not to investigate Norman but to investigate "personnel in our own State Department, one of whom was stationed in the Middle East." He mentioned no names.

A Red "In Our Records"
But Eastland's explanation of the purpose of the hearing was not the same as that given this writer previously when he asked Morris to explain the purpose. Morris, who had told Emmerson he was not under investigation, had said:

"We wanted to ask him (Emmerson) about his associations with Communists in China and his association at the time of Suez (meaning the invasion of Egypt by Israel) with a man (Norman) listed in our records as a Communist."

THREE WOMEN DIE IN CRASH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fifteen deaths raised the weekend traffic toll to Pennsylvania's second highest for the year.

Three young women died in a single auto crash on snowy Route 18 near Greenville early yesterday.

A fire burned a Philadelphia woman to death at her home Saturday to raise the total number of accidental deaths to 16 over the weekend. The victim was Mrs. Clara Mazzucca, 34.

The accident near Greenville occurred as the trio was on its way to visit a relative of one of the women. The car skidded into a bridge abutment, throwing the victims clear of the vehicle.

They were Mrs. Leona Vardaro, 39, Mrs. Beatrice Harrison, 33, and Miss Bonnie Lee Kays, 22, all of Meadville. Miss Kays and Mrs. Harrison were sisters.

Portland, was convicted by a State Circuit Court jury Saturday.

The penalty is removal from office and a possible $50 to $500 fine, but Langley's attorneys obtained an arrest of judgment. They are scheduled to argue for further delay and also to make a motion for a new trial.

MISSING PILOT FOUND IN CRASH

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A Johnstown man, fox hunting in a snow-covered mountain area 13 miles west of here, yesterday found the wreckage of a light plane and the body of the pilot.

George Gleesner said the plane was covered with snow and hidden by trees.

The pilot, August Pitz, 24, of Oshkosh, Wis., took off from Lock Haven last Friday at 10:15 a.m. and was last heard from about an hour later over Johnstown. Weather conditions were bad. Pitz was en route to Oshkosh.

He was thrown from the plane and apparently landed on a huge rock in the area.

House And Senate Ready To Okay Funds For Post Offices

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House was ready to approve swiftly today a bill to give the Post Office Department another 41 million dollars to restore normal mail service.

The Senate was poised to act, possibly tomorrow, thus clearing the way for Postmaster General Summerfield to call off service cutbacks begun Saturday.

Meanwhile, a second stage of Summerfield's cutback order became effective today. Mail deliveries to city business districts were limited to two a day, and most post offices went on an 8½-hour schedule for window service.

Enough To Restore Service
In advance of the House voting, Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations Committee said, "I expect no difficulty."

Sen. Robertson (D-Va.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations subcommittee handling postal funds, said he would urge the Senate to accept the 41-million-dollar figure. He said he feels that's enough to restore all postal services.

Summerfield has said he will make no move to restore service until the President signs a bill giving him more money.

Needs 47 Millions
He has said he must have 47 millions to keep full mail service in operation during the remaining 2½ months of this fiscal year. He has promised to restore all the cuts he can if he gets 41 millions.

He says the supplemental request was prompted by unforeseen costs. He attributed these to unexpectedly heavy mail volume, a need to open new routes to serve spreading residential areas, and a postal pay raise.

Congressional critics, including Cannon, have contended Summerfield should have lived within his regular budget of more than two billion dollars. They have accused him of violating a law designed to prevent overspending by federal agencies.

Broke "Spirit Of Law"
Comptroller General Joseph Campbell, head of the watchdog General Accounting Office, said the Post Office Department violated the anti-deficiency law "in spirit" while staying technically in bounds.

But Campbell, in a letter to Summerfield and Cannon, said the Budget Bureau broke the law by allowing the Post Office to spend its regular appropriation too rapidly.

He said the section of the law relating to the postal situation provides no penalty for violations.

The service Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church were conducted by a supply minister, the Rev. Dr. Graham E. Jamieson, of the Wilson College faculty, Chambersburg. He has often supplied the local pulpit since the Rev. Clyde R. Brown resigned last December to go to Alliquippa, Pa.

The congregation's new pastor, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, of Athens, Pa., will begin his new duties here until the first Sunday in May.

Dr. Jamieson greeted President and Mrs. Eisenhower at their pew after the service and walked to the church entrance where they were photographed together by press cameramen.

Played Golf Saturday
President Eisenhower had braved near freezing temperatures and a chilly breeze from the north Saturday morning to play his first round of golf at the Gettysburg Country Club for this spring. He played 18 holes and was on the course two hours and 22 minutes from 11:10 a.m. until 1:32 p.m. His playing companions were Gen. Arthur S. Nevin and George Allen.

The President had flown here Friday afternoon. He was joined here by Mrs. Eisenhower and a five-year-old granddaughter, Susan, and Major and Mrs. John Eisenhower and their family. It was the third consecutive weekend the Eisenhowers had spent at the farm.

The President made the 80-mile trip in two hours and ten minutes, traveling at the posted speed limits all the way.

Ex-Bigler Coach Takes New Position

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Jack W. Yoh, head football coach at Bloomsburg State Teachers College for the past five years, has resigned to become assistant principal at Upper Merion High School near Philadelphia. It was disclosed today.

Yoh's Bloomsburg football teams won 25, lost 12, and tied two. His 1955 team captured the State Teachers College crown. He also coached the Bloomsburg baseball team in 1953 and 1954.

A graduate of Lock Haven State Teachers College, Yoh formerly coached at Biglerville and Upper Merion High Schools and as an assistant at West Chester State Teachers College.

Surviving are her husband, to whom she was wed for 54 years; four children, Mrs. Roosevelt A. Bunty, New Oxford R. 1; Mrs. Albert C. Smith, New Oxford; J. Francis Fleshman, Hanover; and Mrs. John C. Irvin, Gettysburg; 18 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Albert Sneringer, McSherrystown.

Funeral services Wednesday morning at 8:30 a.m. with meeting at the Fred F. Feiser Funeral home, New Oxford, at 8:30 a.m. to proceed to St. Mary's Immaculate Conception Church where a requiem mass will be said at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Fr. Philip J. Gergen. Interment in the church cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home in New Oxford Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Prayers will be recited at the funeral home Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, led by Rev. Fr. Gergen.

Mr. Raffensperger, trust officer at the Gettysburg National Bank, was at his desk at 9 a.m. today after hooking seven brown trout in Middle Creek. Harner, manager of the Gettysburg Municipal Authority, came home with four. All measured from eight to 10 inches.

Barry Gracey, Mt. Holly Springs, fish warden for the county, reported 2,650 trout had been stocked in county streams, but had an explanation for the slow response of the trout to lures this morning.

Trout Not Hungry
High waters over the last several weeks have brought great quantities of natural food into the streams and the fish are "getting more than enough to eat. There are great numbers of trout present, but when they are not hungry it is difficult to attract them. I'm afraid the first several days of the season are going to be slow for that reason."

The anglers, starting out on their longest season, one that runs for 141 days until September 2, will find that 1,500 brown trout have been placed in 11 miles of Middle Creek in the county; 450 brook trout were placed in two miles of Little March Creek and 700 brook trout were placed in ½ miles of Tom's Creek, Gracey reported.

In addition Bryce Parnell, St. Thomas, fish warden for Franklin County, placed trout in the Little Antietam, Carbaugh's Run and the Chambersburg Water Dam stream.

Births For First Quarter Are Higher

A total of 292 births and 66 deaths have occurred so far this year in the Gettysburg district, according to the report of the registrar of vital statistics. The number compares to 282 births and 59 deaths during the comparable period of 1956.

There were 96 births and 18 deaths in the district in March, compared to 97 births and 20 deaths in March a year ago. Of the births last month all, 52 males and 44 females, occurred in Gettysburg. There were eight male and five female deaths in Gettysburg, three male and one female deaths in Cumberland Twp. one female death in Highland Twp. and none in Freedom and Straban Townships.

So far in the last six years, from January 1, 1951, to April 1, 1957, there have been a total of 6,192 births in the Gettysburg area.

PLAN TO WED

Kenneth S. Nace, Littlestown R. 2, and Ann Marie Leber, Dallastown, have applied for a marriage license in York.

The annexation is approved and there is any township debt, the court will also have to allocate part of that debt to the borough and if the township had made any improvements to the area to set the amount of reimbursement from the borough to the township.

NAME WORLEY TO CONEWAGO TWP. BOARD

George R. Worley, Hanover R. 4, was appointed by the Adams County court today as a school director for Conewago Twp. to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Barry D. Brammer who moved from the township.

Three petitions were received by the court to fill the vacancy: For Worley, Eugene D. Basford, 318 Diller Rd., Hanover, and James D. Spangler, 317 Diller Rd., Hanover.

In selecting Worley the court noted it followed its rule of always selecting, where there is a choice, from the same political party as that represented by the prior occupant of the post and from the same general geographic location. Both Worley and Brammer are Republicans and both represented the same general geographic area within the township.

List Three Civil Suits
The court also appointed Attorney Richard A. Brown as master in the divorce action of Ethel R. O. (Warren) Fuhrman against Lawrence E. Fuhrman.

The regular check of the civil trial list showed the action in trespass of Aerol, Inc., against Charles L. Trimmer; the trespass action of Carl C. and Florence S. Ray against Dayton Mason and the mechanics lien case of Group and Murtorf against Roland W. and A. Grace Graham listed for trial. The summary action of Adirondack Sporting Goods against W. L. Hunt, trading as Ranger Chemical Industry, has been continued.

May 6 a 10 a.m. was set as the date for a hearing on the proposed settlement of the action in trespass brought by Kermit Showers, Nellie Showers and Barry Showers, Aspers R. 1, against Robert E. Showers, Orrtanna R. 1.

Settlement Proposed
Kermit and Nellie Showers, according to papers filed with the court today, are agreed with Robert Showers to settle for $300 the action brought by Mr. and Mrs. Showers on behalf of their 16-year-old son, Barry, after an auto accident October 17 one-half mile south of Wensville on the Wensville-Bronson Rd. Robert Showers was driving and Barry Showers was a passenger when the car went off the road, hit a pole and upset. Barry Showers suffered multiple lacerations, contusions and abrasions of the face and lacerations of a finger.

The settlement suggested to the court calls for payment of $212 to Barry Showers for pain and suffering $28 to Kermit and Nellie Showers for doctors' bills and $60 to Attorney S. M. Raffensperger.

20,849 VOTERS LISTED IN ADAMS

A total of 20,849 persons are registered as voters in Adams County, the clerks to the election board announced today after compiling the new registration made up to the close of registration and the removing a number because of failure to vote for two years.

That number compares to 19,677 registered voters at the time of the 1956 primary.

It shows an increase in the number of Republicans from 10,383 last year to 11,067 now and an increase of Democrats from 9,043 last year to 9,479.

The number of Republican men increased from 5,531 to 5,849, the number of Republican women from 4,852 to 5,218; Democratic men from 5,025 to 5,208 and Democratic women from 4,018 to 4,271.

The compilation shows the Republicans with a 1,588 majority, which compares to a 1,624 majority at election time last fall and 1,340 majority at primary time last year.

There were 11,481 registered Republicans and 9,857 Democrats for the November election.

COUNTY COUPLE

and E. J. Naugle sang a solo, "The Little Family."

A three-tier wedding cake and daffodils decorated the main table. Cup cakes were decorated with the number "60."

Mr. Naugle, 83, is a son of the late Jacob and Kathryn (Douse) Naugle. Mrs. Naugle, 76, is a daughter of the late Scott and Mary (Biesecker) Stultz. The couple was married at the home of the bride's parents April 11, 1897 by the late Rev. Daniel Eyer. Both are natives of Orrtanna and have spent their entire life in the county with the exception of a two-year period when the family resided in Waynesboro.

Both are life-long members of Mt. Carmel EUB Church and for the last 26 years Mr. Naugle has conducted a grocery store in the area, for the last six years at his present location. Both are in good health.

48 Descendants
The couple has 14 children, 26 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Thirteen of the 14 children were present for the observance. Mrs. C. S. (Myrtle) Johnson, East Long Meadow, Mass., was unable to be present because of the illness of her husband.

The children present included: Rev. Ivan G. Naugle, Keedysville, Md.; George D. Naugle, Gettysburg; Mrs. J. D. (Pauline) Miller, Biglerville; Fred Naugle, New Oxford R. 1; Clifford Naugle, Gettysburg; Mrs. Morris (Frances) Murphy, Harrisburg, N. J.; Mrs. Charles (Marguerite) Wert, Harrisburg; Mrs. John (Martha) Reinhold, Fairfield; Arthur Naugle, Orrtanna R. D.; Mrs. Wilbur (Faith) Corbin, Zanesville, O.; Ira Naugle, Orrtanna R. D.; Mrs. Linden (Mildred) Ballard, Orrtanna R. D.

Present in addition to the children were: Mrs. I. G. Naugle, Keedysville; Wilbur Corbin and children, Diane, Douglas and Donn, Zanesville, O.; Morris Murphy and son, Tim, Riverside, N. J.; Charles Wert and sons, Ronald and Terry, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCartney, Harrisburg; John Reinhold, Fairfield; J. D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Miller and Donald Miller, all of Biglerville; Mrs. George Naugle, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Naugle and sons, Jeffrey and David; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Naugle, Miss Betty Jo Naugle and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Stultz, all of Gettysburg; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Whisler, Gettysburg R. 5; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Naugle, Linden Ballard and children, Linda, Juanita and Scott, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tipton, Waynesboro; Rev. Robert E. Burtner, Mrs. Wendell Naugle and son, Jeffrey, Mrs. Ira Naugle and children, Denise, Jay and Judy, Mrs. Arthur Naugle, Mrs. J. E. Spence, Mrs. Anne Rollins and Mrs. Luther Wetzel, Orrtanna R.D., and Tommie Sanders, Aspers.

MISS HAEHNLEN

gown of white-frosted nylon organdie over pink taffeta with a crushed cumberbund of the same pink taffeta ending in bustle panels. The gown was sleeveless and made with a scoop neckline.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lois Bingham, of Selinsgrove, Pa.; Miss Nina Williams, of Gettysburg, and Miss Anita Winnings, of Womelsburg, Pa. The bridesmaids were attired in ballerina length gowns of white-frosted nylon organdie over mint-green taffeta in identical design to that of the maid of honor.

All the bride's attendants carried gladiolus fashioned on a white lace fan and wore matching headbands.

Miss Sheila Finar, Goshen, N. Y., who was flower girl, wore a full length gown of white nylon organdie over pink taffeta with a matching cumberbund of crushed pink taffeta. The gown had a stand-up collar and puffed sleeves. She carried a basket of sweet peas and wore a matching headband.

Mrs. Haeahnlen, mother of the bride, wore a dusty rose lace dress complimented with navy blue accessories.

Mrs. Czeck, mother of the groom, wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories.

Frank McBride, Jr., of Goshen, was best man. The ushers were Leon McBride, Jr., C. Leslie Purcell, Jr. and Charles Schubert, all of Goshen.

Mrs. Mary Stein, organist, accompanied Albert Czeck, soloist, who sang "On Perfect Love" and "Panis Angelicus."

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Czeck left for a wedding trip to Nassau and the Bahamas. The bride for her travel costume wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories and a melon coat. Her corsage was fashioned of eucharist lilies.

The couple will reside at 16 Wisner Terrace, Goshen, while their new home is being completed.

Mrs. Czeck is a graduate of Gettysburg High School and East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. She is presently teaching at Goshen Central School.

The bridegroom graduated from Goshen Central School after which he served eight years in the Marine Corps. He is in business with his father.
